March 2016 Monthly Eblast

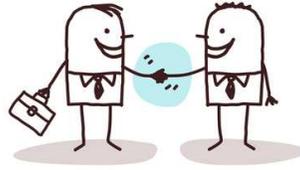

Geographic Management of Cancer Health Disparities Program (GMaP) for Region 2

GMaP Region 2 (previously Region 3) includes Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi and Puerto Rico.

ABOUT GMaP?

Geographical Management of Cancer Health Disparities Program (GMaP) is a grant funded by the National Cancer Institute Center to Reduce Cancer Health Disparities to bring together researchers, trainees, new and early-stage investigators, and community health members to identify and prioritize region-specific cancer research, education/outreach, and training needs. GMaP is a network of regional hubs that provide a systematic approach to facilitating collaboration, cooperation, information- and resource-sharing, and capacity-building among cancer health disparities researchers, trainees, outreach workers, and organizations, with the key goal of advancing cancer health disparities research and training. Moffitt Cancer Center in Tampa, FL serves as the hub for GMaP Region 2 (previously Region 3), which currently includes more than 40 partner institutions in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi and Puerto Rico.

PARTNER WITH GMaP

GMAP Region 2 is interested in connecting with new partner institutions to identify, link, and track underrepresented trainees/students and early-stage-investigators (ESI) to career development opportunities.

GMAP Career Development Opportunities and Activities Include:

- Trainee/Early Career Scientists Travel and Expert Grant Review Awards
- Cancer Health Disparities Research Course
- Collaborative Inter-institutional Research Pilot Funding
- Regional Communications about Current Research and Training Opportunities.

For more information about GMAP and opportunities to join or partner in region 2, please contact Kimberly R. Williams at Kimberly.Williams@Moffitt.org or 813-745-6502.

ARE YOU PRESENTING A POSTER/ORAL PRESENTATION AT AACR ANNUAL MEETING 2016?!

Please share your presentation information with GMAP Region 2. We would like to stop by and visit your poster/presentation and also invite you to learn more about training opportunities with the National Cancer Institute (NCI).

Send the following information to Kimberly Williams at Kimberly.Williams@moffitt.org no later than Friday, April 8th.

GMAP REGION 2 WEBINAR ANNOUNCEMENT!!!

Topic: Connecting the Dots: Merging Health Educators within Cancer Disparities Research.

Date/Time: Thursday, March 24, 2016: 12:30pm - 1:30pm EST.

Target Audience: Trainee/Jr. Faculty, Early Stage Investigators (ESIs),

Students, and those interested in Cancer Health Disparities (CHD) Research

Objectives: The webinar is designed to provide a better understanding of the Community Health Educators (CHEs) role in CHD research:

- Define the role and purpose of CHEs
- Identify CHEs within region/area
- Describe how health education (with given examples) can be interwoven into cancer disparities research

Speakers/Panelists/Partners:

- Geographic Management of Cancer Health Disparities Program (GMaP) for Region 2 – Kimberly Williams, MS, MPH
- NON Community Health Educator (CHE), Moffitt Cancer Center - Khaliah Fleming, MPH, CHES
- PACHE Community Health Educator (CHE), Ponce School of Medicine/Moffitt Cancer Center - Jomar Lopez, BA
- NON Community Health Educator (CHE), Washington University in St. Louis, School of Medicine & Siteman Cancer Center - Saffiyah Muhammad, MPH

Let's talk about the Career Development (K) Awards opportunities at the NIH

K awards provide support for senior postdoctoral fellows or faculty-level candidates. K awards are designed to promote the career development of specific groups of individuals based on their past training and career stage.

The objective of these programs is to bring candidates to the point where they are able to conduct their research independently and are competitive for major grant support. Current NIH policies require that, by the time of the award, applicants must be U.S. citizens, non-citizen U.S. nationals, or have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence. Please note that this requirement applies to all the mechanisms below, EXCEPT the K99/R00.
